The Milan Church of Sant'Ambrogio

A Building History from 386 to 1200

The book concerns the church of Sant'Ambrogio at Milan. It discusses previously overlooked material which calls into question the conventional reconstruction of the building history. Correspondingly, it offers a reappraisal of the building's transmutations over several periods, from the Romano-Christian to the Romanesque.

The Contemporary Academic Mystery Novel

A Study in Genre

The book analyses the contemporary academic mystery novel through the lenses of the classical detective novel and the university novel. The authors of the analysed mysteries are scholars who invent apparently insoluble criminal conundrums to highlight the problems haunting the higher education system, such as plagiarism or fight for tenure.

Disorders at the Borders

In Search of the Gesamtkunstwerk in the Paintings of Anselm Kiefer

Although Anselm Kiefer's work is routinely compared with the Gesamtkunstwerk, the 'total work of art' pioneered by Richard Wagner, this book investigates the highly ambivalent relationship between these two artists. Their views on art and society, individualism and counter-Americanism are all explored.

Les années 1910

Arts décoratifs, mode, design

Coincés entre le tournant du xx<sup>e</sup> siècle, l'entre-deux-guerres, associé à l'Art déco, les développements des arts appliqués dans les années 1910 paraissent délaissés par l'historiographie. Les vingt-deux études rassemblées dans cet ouvrage permettent de les reconsidérer à l'aune des recherches récentes.

Ferramonti

Interpreting Cultural Behaviors and Musical Practices in a Southern-Italian Internment Camp

During their internment in Ferramonti, Jewish musicians gave rise to musical practices (so-called Lagermusik): concerts of the Lagerchoir and Lagerorchestra, Kabarett, music for worship services and educational purposes which are here reconstructed, critically assessed and interpreted as cultural behaviors for inmates' survival.

Fehlerquellen im Ermittlungsverfahren – ein rechtspsychologischer Diskurs

Eine dissonanztheoretische Untersuchung einseitiger Ermittlungstätigkeit bei Polizeibeamten

Ermittlungsfehler können u.a. auf kognitiven Wahrnehmungsverzerrungen der Ermittler beruhen. Kognitive Dissonanz und ihre Reduktion können dabei Auslöser sein und zu einer (fehlerhaften) selektiven Informationssuche der Ermittler führen. Die Verfasserin untersucht dieses Phänomen unter Berücksichtigung rechtlicher und struktureller Besonderheiten.

Testing the Interclausal Relations Hierarchy: Modal and Aspectual Constructions in Sardinian

This book aims at testing the insertion of eight Sardinian complex predicates inside the Interclausal Relation Hierarchy (RRG). This hierarchy grades them according to their semantic and syntactic cohesion degree. It introduces some first-hand diatopic data, showing that Sardinian verbal morphosyntax is more cohesive than phonological isoglosses.

Sintaxis discursiva: construcciones y operadores en español

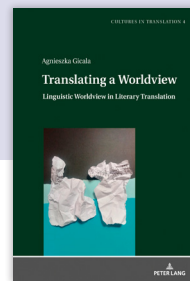

La obra Sintaxis discursiva parte de la premisa de que existe sintaxis más allá de la oración. Esta permite entender cómo se construyen los textos y se organizan sus componentes adaptándose a la situación comunicativa. Los trabajos de este libro describen operadores discursivos y construcciones semifijadas que aportan dicho contenido procedimental.

Translating a Worldview

Linguistic Worldview in Literary Translation

The book offers a view of literary text translation as a reconstruction of the non-standard linguistic worldview embedded in that text, and emerging from the standard, conventional worldview in a given language and culture. Using a metaphor of two icebergs, this thesis is by analyses of English translations of two poems by Wisława Szymborska.

On the Paradox of Cognition

The book deals with selected aspects of poststructural thought which are introduced into the language of contemporary science, prose, and poetry. Such an enterprise is possible by treating philosophy, science, and poetry as languages which can try to enter into a dialogue through metaphors. This is the ground on which the project is implemented.

Israel's Academic Arena

The Colleges and University Extensions Revolution

The expansion of Israel's academic system through Regional Colleges led to increased accessibility to higher education among new populations. Assuming that reducing social gaps in this way may lead to increased social mobility, the book discusses whether the system's expansion had in fact contributed to reduced social gaps in Israeli society.

Japanese Politics in Comparative Perspective

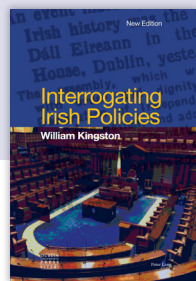

From the East to the West, and Then Whither?

Before 1962 Japan belonged to the East while thereafter Japan was considered part of the West in science, industry and international law. After 1992, Japan belonged to the new West. While the world is struggling with climate change and infectious disease, Japan will emerge by 2022 as the oasis of stability.

Migratory Movements of Georgia's Greek Community

The Impact of Current Socio-economic Transformations

This book investigates the interaction between complex transformational socio-economic processes, migratory vectors, and the role of ethnic belonging. It outlines the hitherto unexamined determining factors of the mass emigration of the Pontic and Urum Greeks of Georgia.

Covid-19, the Second World War, and the Idea of Britishness

In Great Britain, discussions of the Coronavirus pandemic have frequently been intertwined with references to the Second World War. Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines, this comprehensive volume seeks to evaluate the uses (and abuses) of this rhetoric. The result is a multifaceted meditation on the response to the pandemic.

Les nouveaux paradigmes du projet ?

Transition, adaptation, résilience

3 paradigmes (transition, adaptation, résilience) ont contribué à renouveler les liens entre l'aménagement-urbanisme et le projet. Cet ouvrage propose d'identifier et d'analyser ceux-ci quand le projet est articulé avec des enjeux environnementaux, de la ville durable et de l'aménagement durable des territoires.

Performing Christ

South African Protest Theatre and the Theological Dramatic Theory of Hans Urs von Balthasar

In the latter part of the twentieth century, against the backdrop of the Sharpeville Massacre and the Soweto Uprising, theatre became a central means of artistic resistance in apartheid South Africa. One of the most significant plays from this time was Woza Albert!, which was created and staged by the actor-duo Percy Mtwa and Mbongeni Ngema, with the help and creative input of the renowned theatre-maker and political activist, Barney Simon. What made this protest play so powerful and provocative was the fact that it restaged the Christ-drama, as presented in the Gospels, in the context of apartheid South Africa...
