Entre el Sur y el Norte

Decolonizing Education through Critical Readings of Chicana/x/o, Mexican, and Indigenous Music

Grounded on the premise that education is a political act, this volume examines music as a site of anti-colonial resistance and decolonial praxis in schools, arguing that the study of Latinx musical forms allows educators to break silences, disrupt dominant narratives, and create a transformative consciousness among students.

Progressive Education for Democratic Society

Smitty! Not g, Dr. Spearman

The American educational system has not served well for the development of a citizenry capable of effective participation in the democratic decision-making process. Issues of proper and improper authority are discussed to argue for schools in which students know how to benefit from the proper and challenge the improper.

Writing the Child

Fictions of Memory in German Postwar Literature

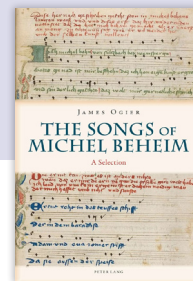

Writing the Child considers the evolution of German cultural memory concerning wartime trauma and victimhood. In dialogue with the voices of German war children, the Kriegskinder, the texts analysed echo but also contest exculpatory victimologies that have shaped German memory frameworks from the 1940s up to the post-1989 present.

Hans Falladas letzter Roman «Jeder stirbt für sich allein»

Der Widerstand der «kleinen Leute»

Hans Falladas Roman Jeder stirbt für sich allein – auf der Basis von Gestapo-Akten im Herbst 1946 geschrieben – erzählt vom Widerstand «kleiner Leute» gegen Hitler. Er verdeutlicht, dass es im Nationalsozialismus auch für nicht organisierte Einzelkämpfer ohne besondere Machtmittel durchaus Alternativen zum Wegschauen und Mitmachen gab.

Media, Power and Public Opinion

Essays on Communication and Politics in a Historical Perspective

This book aims at exploring in a long historical perspective and in a wide historical context the reactions of political institutions and players towards new media and new forms of communication, as well as their strategies in order to combat and/or exploit their effects and potential. This is an original and innovative attempt to combine traditional approaches to the history of the media and politics with studies that aim to directly provide some historical perspective on contemporary preoccupations with ‘fake news’ and manipulation of public opinion. Addressing these topics by focusing on specific events and specific contexts as case studies allows us to connect the hic et nunc dimension with the general trend of the history and verify the particular effects of general long-term trends.

The 'Human Rights Component' of Foreign Policy

The Case of Italy between Self-conceptions and the Pursuit of Reputation

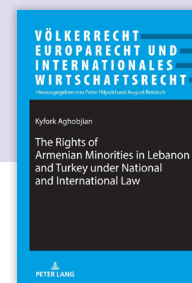

The focus of this study, which considers a period ranging from the end of the Cold War to the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic, is placed on the whole 'human rights component' of foreign policy, which is intended as the combination of three dimensions that are part of the same policy effort but can analytically be distinguished among them.

From Cognitivism to Ecologism in Language Studies

The present volume is a reflection of the current emerging phase, of ecolinguistics. The chapters show a newly-born scientific presence and growing stamina of ecolinguistics; and, at the same time, an eclecticism and some (orderly) dis-order of themes and methods which are taken up by linguistics scholars involved in ecolinguistic explorations.

Pseudo-Dionysius and Gregory Palamas

The Byzantine Synthesis of Eastern Patristics

The book is a source comparative study of the views of Gregory Palamas and Pseudo-Dionysius Areopagite on man's ability to know God. The author distances herself from the opinions of other researchers who prove Pseudo-Dionysius' dependence on the Neoplatonic tradition. She asks about the place of Dionysian thought in the works of Palamas.

Variación dialectal y cambio lingüístico en el noroccidente ibérico: los perfectos del español

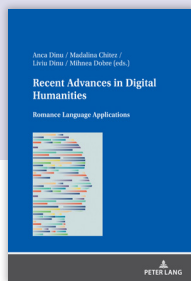

Se estudia la variación de los pretéritos perfectos simple y compuesto en el español del noroccidente ibérico. Se demuestra que la distribución geográfica de estos tiempos refleja el proceso diacrónico de consolidación del compuesto, cuyos pormenores pueden explicarse atendiendo a las variables lingüísticas que dirigen la selección de estas formas.

Recent Advances in Digital Humanities

Romance Language Applications

The volume offers an assorted collection of studies showcasing digitalization methods. The focus on Romance languages (e.g. Latin, Italian, Romanian, Spanish) provides an entry point in digital humanities, at large, exemplified by a tripartite division of the collection: resources and digitalization, tools and interfaces, and computational methods.

Una mirada crítica al componente sociocultural en los libros de texto de español como L2

Apenas existen monografías centradas en el componente sociocultural de libros de texto de español como L2. Este estudio se centra en investigar dicho componente en nueve libros de texto de español como L2 publicados por editoriales españolas entre 2008-2018, dirigidos a adultos y adultos jóvenes, con fines generales, y pertenecientes a los niveles inicial, intermedio y avanzado. Los resultados indican que este componente difícilmente está bien fundamentado e informado y apenas contiene una estructura y organización adecuadas. No refleja la diversidad del mundo hispanohablante desde el punto de vista geopolítico, humano y social. La presencia de los usos sociolingüísticos del español es muy escasa. El nivel y el año de publicación no ejercen influencia en este componente.

Mito y realidad: investigaciones sobre el pensamiento dual en el mundo occidental

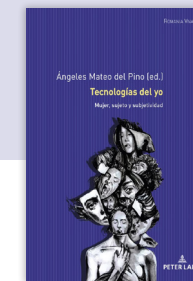

Este libro es una exploración del pensamiento occidental que surgió de la fragua de las grandes escuelas filosóficas. En particular, analiza diversos fenómenos culturales o estudia la obra de determinados autores imprescindibles para comprender la cultura europea en su conjunto desde la Grecia clásica.

Saramago After the Nobel

Contemporary Readings of José Saramago's Late Works

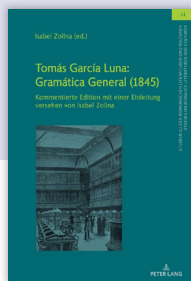

José Saramago won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1998, the first Portuguese-language writer to do so. This volume is the first to focus on Saramago's late works, which continued to express his political convictions. As 2022 marks his centenary, this volume is dedicated especially to his works and all the futures they made possible to envision.

Tomás García Luna: Gramática General (1845)

Kommentierte Edition mit einer Einleitung versehen von Isabel Zollna

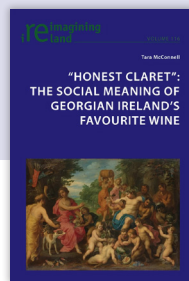

Diese neue Edition der Gramática General von García Luna ist ein Beitrag zur Rezeptionsgeschichte der Idéologie in Spanien im 19. Jahrhundert; zwischen religiöser Überzeugung und aufklärerischem Geist wird Destutt de Tracy's Grammatiktheorie gegen Gómez Herosillas Kritik verteidigt und gleichzeitig der sensualistische Materialismus zurückgewiesen.

Lifetime Linguistic Inspirations

To Igor Mel'čuk from Colleagues and Friends for his 90th Birthday

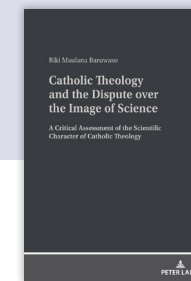

The Festschrift volume consists of 42 contributions pertaining to all branches of "core" synchronic linguistics (with occasional excursions into diachrony, literary theory, philology and religious studies). Some are more theoretically minded while others are focused on pedagogical and / or computational applications of the Meaning-Text theory.

The Prophecy of Hananiah in Jeremiah 28: A Study among Christians in Abuja, Nigeria

The study makes a significant contribution to the scholarship on Jeremiah in that it critically explicates who the corpus of Jeremiah calls nabi in the text and who not. This discovery is significant for the issue of true and false prophecy in Jeremiah 28.

Die Teilnahme der Menschen am Homoousion der göttlichen Personen

Der Mensch als tieferes Herz der Trinität

Dass die Menschen am Homoousion teil-nehmen und sie ein weiteres oder tiefe-res Herz des trinitarischen Lebens sind, ist kein Theologoumenon. Diese Sicht-weise bietet die Grundlage für die Exploration großer Arbeitsfelder in der Theologie. Diese Auffassung wird zum ersten Mal seit Etablierung des Dogmas des Homoousion im 4. Jahrhundert präsentiert.
